

June 22-26, 2010

Columbus State University

Columbus, GA

SOUTHEAST TROMBONE SYMPOSIUM

STS 2010

June 22-26, 2010

Columbus State University

Columbus, GA

Professors Choir

Saturday, June 26

Legacy Hall

The Professors Choir at the 2010 Southeast Trombone Symposium is comprised of area trombone professors who join the STS faculty in an octet performance. These professionals are all committed to the highest level of performance and teaching, and appreciate the value of trombone ensemble playing from a pedagogical perspective.

Performers:

George Curran, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Kennesaw State University
Jeff Koonce, Samford University, UAB, Birmingham Southern College
Cory Mixdorf, Georgia State University
Bradley Palmer, Columbus State University
Bill Thomas, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra
Jonathan Whitaker, University of Alabama
Stephen Wilson, Brevard College
Matthew Wood, Auburn University

Program to be selected from the following:

O Magnum Mysterium (Laridsen arr. Williams)
Sleep (Whitacre, arr. Johns)
Duet for Our Time (Ewazen)
Provence (Dibb)
Canzona Primi Toni (Gabrieli, arr. Cauthen)
Canzona Septimi Toni No. 2 (Gabrieli, arr. Leno)
Passacaglia in C Minor (Bach, arr. Hunsberger)
Nessun Dorma (Puccini, arr. Mousseau)
Elanor Rigby (Lennon and McCartney, arr. Wilson)
Nunc Dimittis (Holst, arr. Koonce)
Fanfare from La Peri (Dukas, arr. Mathie)
Ave Maria from Vespers, Op. 37, No.6 (Rachmaninov, arr. Whitaker)