The Chicago Trombone Consort includes nine of Chicago's elite trombonists, including members of the Lyric Opera Orchestra, Elgin Symphony, Illinois Philharmonic, and others. Ensemble members are on the faculties of Indiana, DePaul and Northwestern Universities. The CTC repertory includes new and original Works for trombone ensemble as well as arrangements ranging from the Renaissance to the Blues. This ensemble's talent is capable of producing a sonic range from the intimacy of a three-part Baroque Trio Sonata to a ten-voice choir, with decibels equaling the full power of a large church organ.

You can enjoy Chicago Trombone Consort's sounds on i-tunes and at www.chicagotromboneconsort.com
