

The 2011 International Trombone Festival

presents

The Mid-South Pro Bones

Trombone Ensemble

conducted by

Don H. Hough, Sr.

2009 Neill Humfeld Award Winner

Professor Emeritus, University of Tennessee

Schermerhorn Symphony Center

Nashville, Tennessee

6:45 p.m.

Mid-South Pro Bones Trombone Ensemble

Nicole Abissi-Alabama Symphony Orchestra
Doug Bristol-Prof of Theory and Technology-Alabama State U
Michael Carver-Bass Trombone-Chattanooga Symphony Orch.
Sam Chen-Principal Trombone-Knoxville Symphony Orch,
Kevin Chiarizzio-Professor of Trombone-Liberty University
Eddie Clark-Free Lance Bass Trombone-Memphis
Daniel Cloutier-Professor of Trombone-Univ. of Tennessee
Joshua Hauser-Professor of Trombone-Tennessee Tech Univ.
Bill Huber-Free Lance Tenor/Bass Trombone-Nashville
Jeff Koonce-Free Lance Bass Trombone-Birmingham
Tom Lundberg-Lead Trombone Knoxville Jazz Orchestra
Greg Luscombe-Principal Trombone-Memphis Symphony
Brad McDougall-Bass Trombone-Knoxville Symphony Orch.
Ed Morse-Free Lance Alto/Tenor Trombone-Memphis
John Mueller-Professor of Trombone-Univ. of Memphis
Bradley Palmer-Professor of Trombone-Columbus State Univ.
Jeff Phillips-Professor of Trombone-Belmont University
Wes Ramsay-Trombonist/Arranger/Composer-Nashville
Brett Shuster-Professor of Trombone-University of Louisville
Greg Swanson-Vanderbilt University, Capitol Brass Quintet
Mark Vail-Bass Trombone-Memphis Symphony Orchestra
Doug Warner-Professor of Trombone-Lee University
Josh Walker-Knoxville Symphony Orchestra
Jonathan Whitaker-Professor of Trombone-Univ. of Alabama